

START UP POLICY

Make the Academic Council cognizant of any policies pertaining to pre-incubation through startup formation that may be deemed necessary.

to conduct inquiries and provide advice on matters of contention pertaining to the incubation phase of startup formation. Inform the Academic Council of any necessary policies pertaining to pre-incubation towards the establishment of a startup.

INNOVATION CELL / STARTUP CLUB

The members hold a two-year term that is once renewable. Members of the Ethics Committee shall be temporarily replaced by substitutes selected by the Principal in the event of a conflict of interest.

Tasks of the Committee

- to develop the RGIMS Policy on Innovation and Startups.
- In order to offer academic assistance and direction to students about innovation, start-up establishment, product development, and commercialization, communicate to the Academic Council any necessary policies pertaining to pre-incubation through start-up establishment.
- to serve as a consultative/investigative body for any contentious issue pertaining to the incubation phase of startup formation.